

Anglais

Épreuves orales

Série Lettres et arts

Les textes proposés sont extraits de:

The Economist

- “Bagehot: The machine splutters” (10/11/2016)
- “The not-so-United Kingdom: Britain is sliding towards Scoxit” (18/02/2017)
- “The last big frontier. Wilderness living” (06/08/2016)

The New York Times

- “Review: In ‘Loving’ They Loved. A Segregated Virginia Did Not Love Them Back.” (03/11/2016)
- “Op-Ed: Theresa May’s Empire of the Mind.” (15/02/2017)
- “Bob Dylan wins Nobel Prize, redefining Boundaries of Literature.” (13/10/2016)
- “Why British Hip-Hop Just Might Save the Labour Party” (01/06/2017)

The Nation

- “The Martian’s Guide to British Politics, or: Is There Intelligent Life on This Island?” (28/04/2017)

The New Statesman

- “Education: Why do Tories love grammar schools?” (09/03/2017)
- “The white working class is another form of identity politics” (23/11/2016)

The Guardian

- “Colonial nostalgia is back in fashion, blinding us to the horrors of empire?” (24/08/2016)
- “Our Brexit-driven disregard for Ireland is perilous” (12/04/2017)
- “Migrants are always the scapegoats. But now they’re taking on Ukip’s lies” (16/02/2017)
- “Al-Britannia, My Country by James Fergusson review – a compelling survey of British Islam” (01/06/2017)
- “Opinion: By choice, I’ve never voted before. But Jeremy Corbyn has changed my mind” (12/05/2017)

The Atlantic

- “Trump Is Scaring Indian Americans Into Finding Their Political Voice” (27/03/2017)

The New Yorker

- “The Usefulness of a March for Science” (23/04/2017)

The Telegraph

- “If the Church of England continues to smother liberal Anglicans, it is heading for a split” (16/02/2017)
- “Stifling the freedom to mock and attack will reduce our universities to irrelevant echo chambers” (14/03/2017)

The National Review

- “Bronze Plaques Matter” (20/05/2017)

Los Angeles Times

- “A California-led alliance of cities and states vows to keep the Paris climate accord intact” (02/06/2017)

The Washington Post

- “Who were the big donors to the African American Museum? You’ll know the minute you walk in.” (22/09/2016)
- “Trump boasts about his philanthropy. But his giving falls short of his words.” (29/10/2016)

The Boston Globe

- “Checks and balances can slow Trump” (22/02/2017)

Mother Jones

-“Had It In for the Voting Rights Act” (Nov/Dec/2016)

The Spectator-Coffee House Blog

-“Does Brexit mean England can have Englishness?” (Nov/Dec/2016)

Série langues vivantes

Explication d'un texte d'auteur (LV1)

Les textes proposés sont extraits de :

Thomas Hardy, The Collected Poems

- Titre du poème “In Front of the Landscape”: de “Plunging and Labouring...” à “...now corporate.”, p. 275-276
- Titre du poème “The Going”: poème entier, p. 307-308
- Titre du poème “Places”: poème entier, p. 320-321
- Titre du poème “Rose-Ann”: poème entier, p. 225
- Titre du poème “The Place on the Map”: poème entier, p. 292
- Titre du poème “Ah, are You Digging on My Grave ?”: poème entier, p. 300-301
- Titre du poème “Where the Picnic Was”: poème entier, p. 325
- Titre du poème “The Torn Letter”: poème entier, p. 285-286
- Titre du poème “Wessex Heights”: poème entier, p. 290-291
- Titre du poème “His Wisitor”: poème entier, p. 315-316
- Titre du poème “After a Journey”: poème entier, p. 317-318
- Titre du poème “The Ghost of the Past”: poème entier, p. 279-280
- Titre du poème “The Walk”: poème entier, p. 309
- Titre du poème “Beeny Cliff”: poème entier, p. 319

Nathaniel Hawthorne, The Scarlet Letter, 1850

- De “On the wall hung...” à “...gentlemen along with him !”, pages pp. 97-99
- De “It was a circumstance to be noted...” à “...apartment of the prison.”, pages pp. 48-50
- De “But the objet that most drew my attention...” à “...the authenticity of the outline.”, pages pp. 30-32
- De “A good evening to you...” à “...The three formed an electric chain.”, pages pp. 139-41
- Du début du chapitre 17 à “...with a bitter smile.”, pp. 176-78
- De “The rulers, and the wise and learned me...” à “...so transfigured.”, pp. 150-151
- De “Accordingly, the crowd...” à “...all else had vanished !”, pages pp. 54-56
- De “Such was the sympathy...” à “...forshe saw the clergyman !”, pp. 189-91
- De “Pearl, whose activity of spirit...” à “...why does the minister keep his hand over his heart ?”, pp. 164-166
- De “But the sea, in those old times...” à “...and fearful meaning.”, pp. 217-219
- Du début du chapitre 24 à “...May be inferred !”, pp. 240-242
- De “It was on him !...” à “...departed spirit.”, pp. 237-239
- De “Lonely as was Hester’s situation...” à “...garments for the poor.”, pp. 217-219
- De “The Road, after the two wayfarers...” à “...the Black Man, mother ?”, pp. 217-219

William Shakespeare, The Winter’s Tale

- I.2.1-85, de “Nine changes of the watery star...” à “...Is he won yet?”.
- IV.4.1-75, de “These your unusual weeds...” à “...all the winter long.”.
- II.3.1-72, de “Nor night, nor day...” à “...Traitors !”.
- I.2.118-88, de “Mamillius, art thou my boy?...” à “...boy, play.”.
- V.3.56-121, de “Indeed, my lord...” à “...Our Perdita is found.”.
- II.3.81-145, de “A nest of traitors !...” à “...You’re liars all !”.
- III.2.10-80, de “Silence !...” à “...I’ll lay down.”.
- I.2.281-346, de “Is whispering nothing ?...” à “...thou hast advised me.”.
- IV.4.363-438, de “But to your protestation...” à “...thou art tender to’t.”.
- II.1.15-81, de “Hark ye, ...” à “...Do but mistake.”.
- III.2.170-241, de “Woe the while !...” à “...these sorrows.”.
- V.2.20-101, de “Here comes a gentleman...” à “...they intend to sup.”.
- III.2.104-170, de “Now, my liege...” à “...make the blacker.”.

- II.1.59-129, de “Bear the boy hence, ...” à “...your Queen, your son.”.
- V.1.85-151, de “One that gives out...” à “...the spring to th’earth.”.

Analyse d’un texte hors programme (LV1)

Les textes proposés sont extraits de :

The Financial Times

- “Labour’s slick on-line campaign outguns Tory press” (09/06/2017)
- “Locals fear Brexit means new barriers along the UK-Irish border” (30/01/2017)

The Spectator

- “The world loves our grammar schools, so why don’t we?” (27/05/2017)
- “The strange rebirth of Scottish conservatism” (06/05/2017)
- “Now, finally, we can have a real debate about immigration” (10/09/2016)
- “Red Theresa’s Manifesto” (20/05/2017)

The Washington Post

- “The Trump Pivot: Make the Plutocrats Happy. Keep Feeding his Voters Nativism.” (14/04/2017)
- “The two sins that defined this election” (10/11/2016)

The Chicago Tribune

- “New Orleans mayor made a speech on race and history we all need to hear” (23/05/2017)

The Independent

- “Millennials are being forgotten in this general election – so it’s time we had our own political party” (29/04/2017)

The Nation

- “After the Fumble” (01/03/2017)

The Herald

- “A balancing act to manage on second independence poll” (14/10/2016)

The Economist

- “How Brexit damaged Britain’s democracy” (30/03/2017)
- “An American trade deal raises the prospect of more private involvement in British healthcare” (09/02/2017)

The New York Times

- “Death and Tax Cuts” (24/02/2017)
- “The census Won’t Collect L.G.B.T. data. That’s a Problem” (10/05/2017)

The New York Times Magazine

- “Trump’s One Public Service Was Exposing the Misogyny of the GOP” (10/10/2016)

The Los Angeles Times

- “Yes, Trump’s hard-line immigration stance helped him win the election – but it could be his undoing” (17/04/2017)

The Observer

- “English nationalism is rising: but hard Brexit is not the way to assuage it” (18/03/2017)

The New Yorker

- “Making America White Again” (21/11/2016)
- “Why Republicans Could regret Overturning Roe v. Wade” (19/01/2017)

The Times

- “Corbyn is leading his party into the grave” (26/01/2017)
- “May has my vote but only with gritted teeth” (03/07/2017)

The New Statesman

- “Nigel Farage is still King Ukip – but Paul Nuttall is learning fast” (17/02/2017)
- “A government that includes the DUP is profoundly bad news for women” (09/06/2017)

The Atlantic

- “The Conservative Case for Voting for Clinton” (02/11/2016)

The Guardian

- “Brexitland: People can’t find homes – no wonder they were angry” (23/03/2017)
- “Hipsters, heritage and Handel – how cities can escape London’s shadow” (28/04/2017)
- “The cause of death that dare not speak its name: austerity” (15/04/2017)
- “How can we tackle hate crime within four school systems?” (28/02/2017)

Open Democracy

- “So, who are the DUP?” (09/06/2017)

The Daily Beast

- “New Year’s Resolution for the Left: Make Sure ‘Multiculturalism’ Includes White People” (30/12/2016)
- “An Open Letter to Swing Voters Still Considering Donald Trump” (20/09/2016)
- “The Grand Old Party’s Last Lions Roll Over” (12/06/2017)

Prospect Magazine

- “Posturing behind “the people” ” (14/02/2017)

The New York Daily News

- “Black Voters vs. Populism: Why African-Americans so powerfully resisted the siren song of Donald Trump – and before him, Bernie Sanders” (15/10/2016)

The New Republic

- “Why Conservative Intellectuals Are Pledging Loyalty to General Trump” (31/05/2017)

Slate

- “The Empire Strikes Back” (27/12/2016)

New York Magazine

- “Will We Abandon Women’s Rights in the Name of Progressive Politics?” (21/04/2017)
- “Why Do Democrats Feel Sorry for Hillary Clinton?” (14/04/2017)
- “The Law Can’t Stop Trump. Only Impeachment Can” (15/05/2017)

Vox

- “There’s a new “silent majority,” and it’s voting for Hillary Clinton” (19/10/2016)
- “A Donald Trump presidency would bring shame on this country” (07/10/2016)

Analyse d’un texte hors programme (LV2)

Les textes proposés sont extraits de :

The Independent

- “The black vote is more important than ever at this election – only Jeremy Corbyn can offer us a stake in Britain’s future” (30/05/2017)
- “As a teacher, I know that more of us will leave the profession if the Tories win this election” (31/05/2017)

New Statesman

- “The farmer straddling both sides of the Irish border: “People don’t want a return to violence” (06/03/2017)

The New York Times

- “Trump Defends Twitter Use as Aides Urge Him to Cut Back” (07/06/2017)
- “Op-Ed Contributor: Michelle Carter Didn’t Kill With a Text” (16/06/2017)

The Boston Globe (MA)

- “Diversity progress at elite exam schools is lagging, study says” (02/06/2017)
- “The GOP’s punitive, cruel new health care bill” (23/05/2017)
- “Loving outside the racial box” (24/05/2017)
- “‘Free college’ shows how big ideas always get sanded down” (13/06/2017)

The Observer

- “After Manchester, our values will only prevail if we speak up for them” (27/05/2017)

The Christian Science Monitor (web site)

- “Nordstrom drops Ivanka Trump brand: Business or politics?” (03/02/2017)
- “Colorado becomes latest state to legalize physician-aided death” (10/11/2016)
- “TransCanada refiles Keystone XL application in Nebraska, the next anti-pipeline battleground” (18/02/2017)

The Washington Post (DC)

- “More pot-growing licenses may be on the way” (05/04/2017)

The Daily Telegraph

- “Girls who go to private schools are more likely to have problems with alcohol and drugs” (01/06/2017)
- “Nobody talks about it, but too many rich kids are at university who shouldn’t be there” (27/03/2017)

The Texas Tribune

- “Most community colleges won’t ban guns in classrooms with minors” (02/03/2017)
- “Texas House moves to require more abortion reporting data” (11/05/2017)

The Guardian

- “Colonial nostalgia is back in fashion, blinding us to the horrors of empire” (24/08/2016)
- “Brexit has disfigured the tolerant Britain I’ve known” (19/10/2016)
- “Building Brexit on the myth of empire ignores our brutal history” (07/03/2017)

Série Sciences humaines

Les textes proposés sont extraits de :

National Review

- A Lesson for Planned Parenthood’s Pinup Girls, (01/03/2017)
- The Anti-Business Businessman, (19/01/2017)

Arizona Daily Star

- Federal judge throws out Arizona challenge to Indian Child Welfare Act, (19/03/2017)

Arkansas Times

- Real reform, (25/05/2017)

The New York Times

- Betsy DeVos and God’s Plan for Schools, (12/12/2016)
- What President Trump Doesn’t Get About America, (20/01/2017)
- What Happens When Women Legislate, (18/04/2017)
- Is President Trump Obstructing Justice?, (13/05/2017)
- Donald Trump’s Un-American Refugee Policy, (27/01/2017)
- In Defense of the Religious Right, (15/10/2016)

The Nation

- An Arizona Legislator Gave an Invocation That Didn’t Mention God. You Won’t Believe What Happened Next, (21/04/2017)
- Can a Champion of Black Lives Matter Become Mayor of St. Louis?, (04/03/2017)
- Bernie Sanders Is Going to Mississippi to March With Workers This Weekend, (04/03/2017)
- The Chilling of Middle Eastern studies, (01/05/2017)

The New Statesman

- We don't live in a world in which post-truth politics is inevitable, (15/12/2016)
- From Netflix to rented homes, the decline of ownership, (17/02/2017)

The Guardian

- The supermarket food gamble may be up, (20/12/2017)
- Brexit will spell the end of British art as we know it, (12/05/2017)
- We need new ways to ensure our history is not forgotten, (04/02/2017)
- Blame the internet' is just not a good enough response, Theresa May, (04/06/2017)
- The pedlars of fake news are corroding democracy, (25/11/2016)

Chicago Tribune

- What Trump's administration can do to help Chicago, (28/02/2017)

The Daily Telegraph

- In this classless election, alienation of the young is Mrs May's challenge, (28/04/2017)
- Sneering at the Middletons is just inverted snobbery, (20/05/2017)

The Economist

- European migrants and business: Labour pains, (14/01/2017)
- Higher education: Class warfare Competition between universities is hotting up. That is changing student life, (25/02/2017)

The Independent

- Theresa May saying she'd love the superpower 'to end hunger' in Vogue is an insult to people starving because of Tory policies, (21/03/2017)
- Is this the end of free speech?, (24/11/2016)

The Boston Globe

- Sanctuary cities shouldn't cave to Trump, (27/01/2017)

The Atlanta Voice

- Descendants of syphilis study subjects emerging from shadows, (12/05/2017)

The Atlantic

- The Dark Side of America Optimism, (19/01/2017)

Financial Times

- The ties of affection that bind Scotland to the Union, (24/03/2017)
- Memo to May: you get what you pay for in the health service, (14/01/2017)

St Louis Post-Dispatch

- Contributions one-sided so far for History Museum's Ferguson collection, (27/09/2016)

The Observer

- Poles living in UK 'scared to report hate crimes', (07/01/2017)

Politico.com

- Obama scorches Republicans for threatening more gridlock, (02/11/2016)

Western Morning News

- Time to rid us of one of the most illiberal laws of modern times, (01/06/2017)