

How to re-apply for a PhD : the deadline is set on November 15th 2023

The following steps are required for your re-enrollment at the ENS de Lyon:

1 - CVEC :

As part of your re-enrollment, you have to pay a contribution of 100 euros for your CVEC (Contribution Vie Etudiante et Campus) to the CROUS at <https://cvec.etudiant.gouv.fr/?locale=en> and send back the certificate of the CVEC to Bureau du 3eme cycle.

NB. If you are in 2023-24 in an international dual PhD abroad, you are exempted from CVEC fees ; BUT you have to provide the exemption certificate.

2 - ADUM :

You must submit your re-enrollment file on the doctoral school platform : “ADUM”.

3- Bureau du 3ème cycle ENS de Lyon :

- If you plan on defending your thesis between October 1st and December 31st 2023* ? you ought to :
 - Re-enroll academically first ; do not forget to add your PST fully completed and signed by your thesis supervisor.
 - You will be exempted from your tuition fees and CVEC (*only between those dates).
- Starting from your fourth year ? you will need to renew your proof of financial support.
- If you plan to suspend your research, make sure to fill the caesura year request whilst also still following the instructions regarding the re-enrollment procedure.
- If you are considering stopping your thesis or transferring your registration to another institution, please send an email at rentree.doctorants@ens-lyon.fr

For any further inquiries regarding your re-enrollment, contact rentree.doctorants@ens-lyon.fr

NB. If you are in need of an accommodation, you can use the platform Studapart to potentially acquire an an apartment.

Consider checking the ULYS website dedicated to support the international PhD students.